Titles for Partners and Trainers

IMPORTANT NOTE

In order to distinguish yourself from Z-Health Performance Solutions, the corporation, and head office, you must identify your relationship. Only Z-Health® Performance Solutions may use “Z-Health® Performance Solutions” on its own, because this would imply that it is owned and operated by Z-Health.

If you are one of our Resellers or Certified Practitioners, you must use the approved titles in your materials.

All Z-Health Certified Practitioners can say:

Z-Health® Certified Practitioner. Additionally, Certified Practitioners have the option of using any title, once earned, that most closely represents their business and client targets. For example, if an R-T Certified Trainer primarily targets athletes, he/she may opt to use Z-Health Movement Performance Specialist (R,I,S,T).

R-Phase Certified Practitioners can say:

Z-Health® Movement Reeducation Specialist

I-Phase Certified Practitioners can say:

Z-Health® Movement Integration Specialist

S-Phase Certified Practitioners can say:

Z-Health® Movement Performance Specialist (R,I,S) or (R,I,S,T)

T-Phase Certified Practitioners can say:

Z-Health® Exercise Therapy Specialist (R,I,T) or (R,I,S,T)

Master Trainers can say:

Z-Health® Master Trainer or Z-Health® Master Practitioner (Provisional status trainers, designate with (p))

9S Course Attendees:

Because the 9S courses are supplemental to the main Z-Health® Practitioner certifications, successful completion of these courses can be designated by including (9S) next to your title designation. For example, Z-Health® Movement Performance Specialist (R,I,S,T,9S).

Resellers can say:

Z-Health® Performance Solutions Reseller or Official Reseller for Z-Health® Performance Solutions Products

<Country> Reseller for Z-Health® Performance Solutions Products
